

Maine Better Transportation Association

Executive Director Position

WHO WE ARE

Maine Better Transportation Association (MBTA) was founded in 1939 as the Maine Good Roads Association.

With a rich history of bringing diverse people together to improve transportation infrastructure in Maine, MBTA changed its name in 1983 to reflect its advocacy for funding infrastructure for all modes of transportation. Members include municipalities, businesses and individuals with common interests who share the goal of advocating for funding of a multimodal transportation network – air, roads, rail, port, transit, bicycle and pedestrian facilities – to serve communities and citizens throughout the state.

OUR MISSION

To improve the quality of life and enhance the economy for Maine citizens by advocating for a safe, efficient transportation infrastructure network.

OUR MEMBERS

MBTA members are the lifeblood of the organization. The Board of Directors is a committed group of leaders passionate about the mission, which they take seriously. They also believe in providing a safe, fun and inclusive environment where members can collaborate and be celebrated. In fact, one of the subgoals of the Strategic Plan is Collegiality and Fun.

OUR GOALS

- Advocate: Be the recognized leader in supporting an enhanced transportation infrastructure through government relations.
- Inform: Enhance the public's understanding of the importance of safe, reliable transportation infrastructure for quality of life and the economy.
- Collaborate: Connect and collaborate with public, private and nonprofit organizations, along with elected officials, to advance a better transportation network.
- Lead: Lead the charge to support a better transportation infrastructure network through MBTA efforts and resources.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

The Executive Director serves as the CEO of the Association and is responsible for the overall stewardship of the MBTA, in partnership with and reporting to the Board of Directors. Duties include leading and supporting the organization's direction, programs, finances, fundraising, human resources, member and stakeholder relations, and management of a small, motivated and energetic staff.

MBTA seeks a highly motivated, passionate, reliable and self-starting individual with demonstrated experience in organizational leadership, public policy, a strong understanding of transportation infrastructure, expertise in fundraising and financial stewardship and a track record of building collaborative relationships.

The successful candidate will interact with diverse people from various sectors of business and government and will derive considerable gratification from ongoing collaboration with partners in the private, public and nonprofit sectors.

WHERE WE WORK AND SERVE

MBTA's office is located in Augusta, the state capital, near the capitol building. During the legislative session, the Executive Director and/or a contract lobbyist will actively engage in and monitor legislative issues important to the transportation industry in Maine, and in alignment with MBTA's mission.
